Ilya Sukhar:
>How's the dark launch of the SLA stuff going?

Edward O'Neil:
>Pretty well all things considered - Mobile Platform and DevX are marching to it. I think API is as well, but I'm not in those triage meetings and need to be.
>
>We need more metrics on how the teams are doing.
>
>Alan is driving.

Ilya Sukhar:
>Sounds good

Ilya Sukhar:
>Are the teams excited about it?

Edward O'Neil:
>So far, it's business as usual for DevX / Mobile Platform.
>
>Not sure about API.
>
>Don't think the Login / Web team is doing it yet, and they'll be the interesting test case.

Edward O'Neil:
>BTW, here's the Ad Tools mock I mentioned yesterday.

Ilya Sukhar:
>Neat

Ilya Sukhar:
>Let me know how I can help move forward PS12N

Ilya Sukhar:
>I'm done fighting the graph protection stuff.

Ilya Sukhar:
>What's your take away?

Edward O'Neil:

>With respect to PS12n?

Ilya Sukhar:

>Well, that is a subset. I meant the org change. I was talking to Jason today and he seems unhappy with the Parse situation in that we are unhelpfully reviewing everything. I agree with him and will try to get better about it.
