

EXHIBIT 55

UNREDACTED VERSION OF DOCUMENT SOUGHT TO BE LODGED UNDER SEAL

From: Mike Vernal </O=THEFACEBOOK/OU=FIRST ADMINISTRATIVE GROUP/CN=RECIPIENTS/CN=MVERNAL>
Sent: Wednesday, December 19, 2012 11:28 PM
To: Mike Vernal; Josh Williams; Sam Lessin
Subject: Message summary [id.341520725955386]

Michael Vernal:

>Given Mark's feedback, I think we will likely not move on the Platform 3.0 stuff in the next six months.

>

>If we're unhappy with this, I think we should deal with it as a one-off this time around.

Joshua Williams:

>Is this new 4sq stuff related to new platform work? My understanding is that this is simply a basic implementation of our API. Nothing special.

Joshua Williams:

>Frankly, after we launched Nearby, I'm happy to see 4sq keeping the lights on with us.

Joshua Williams:

>What's odd is that they're only showing you Foursquare content from your Facebook friends who are on Foursquare. It's simply passive-aggressive bootstrapping. But even looking around data in SF I'm having trouble finding anything of value. M