A friend posted a photo, with custom privacy. When I click on the story chevron, it specifically mentions Hithika as a friend who can see the story on my timeline. However, the friend who posted the photo (Gaurav) and Hithika are not friends, and I'm pretty sure she's not included in the set of people who can see the photo. Also, if I navigate to my timeline and try to view it as Hithika, I don't see this post.

Am I misunderstanding something, or is this a bug?
