I'm on board. I like that it paves the way for a great f8 and lets us talk about trust before ps12n, so developers feel less blindsided.

I think we should:
1/ All agree that this is cool
2/ Run it by Mike and potentially Mark
3/ Tell the company so that folks get pumped and we are committed :)

Give me your aye's.

Subject: f8 plan

Hi guys, I invited you all to a doc that outlines the details of the "switcharoo" plan some of us have been knocking around. I think it is a good compromise given all the constraints and we'll be able to tell a story that makes sense.

Let me know what you think and let's lock this down.
